

Canada's Largest Banks & Lenders respond to assist their clients

In an effort to provide financial relief to Canadians impacted by the economic consequences of COVID-19, Canada's largest banks and lenders are making efforts to assist their clients.

This includes a commitment to work with personal and business banking customers on a case-by-case basis to provide flexible solutions to help you manage through challenges due to COVID-19.

As information from our banking partners becomes available, FCR wants to do our part in keeping you and your business up-to-date. Please find links to the COVID-19 update pages from our financial partners below. Please do not hesitate to contact your FCR Advisor should you require any further assistance.
